VÁCLAV CIGLER: Meeting Places

April 22 – July 26 2009, the Museum Kampa area

Václav Cigler is classed as being one of the most important individuals in art glass in the Czech Republic. Due to his art glass objects, Václav Cigler has become one of the protagonists of modern Minimalism. His unique art work is represented in many domestic and international collections.

Václav Cigler also participated in the architectural design of Sova's Mills during its reconstruction, specifically on the modern architectural components which were created to complement the historical architecture of Sova's Mills. These modern glass architectural components provided inspiration for the exhibition's concept and will also play a role in the over-all look of the installation. This exhibition is being held as part of the artist's 80th birthday.

MAX BECKMANN: PAINTINGS, DRAWINGS AND GRAPHIC WORKS

May 7 – August 23, 2009, Schulz's Wing

Museum Kampa has organized an exhibition of oils, drawings and lithographs by one of the most important German artist of the first half of the twentieth century Max Beckmann. For the first time, his works will be seen in Prague. After World War I Max Beckmann's developed in his works figurative painting as a conscious answer to abstract tendencies in art.

Max Beckmann emerges from a graphic theory of painting, and this is one of the reasons why he donates so much time to lithographs. His world-known lithograph series "Die Hölle" from 1919, which is exhibited at the exhibition in Museum Kampa, is a compelling reaction to the horrors of war. This series belongs to the best of lithographic work of the 20th century.

The height of this exhibition will be Max Beckmann's paintings of the countryside and portraits from different stages of his life. The oil paintings will delight the viewer with their colour and his lithographs with their comments on society and the world we live in.

CoBrA: Its Artists and its Art: BEYOND THE BOUNDARIES

May 27 – September 13, 2009, Museum Kampa, in the Stables exhibition hall

The CoBrA art group emerged in the post-war era as an initiative for overcoming the rigid rules of the academia and existing tradition by spontaneous expression, based on fantastic imagery of children or even the mentally ill, searching for inspiration in mythological or pre-historic art. The art of CoBrA transcends the cruelties of the Second World War and modern civilization in general by addressing seemingly child-like subject matters, such as fantastic creatures or masks. Doing so, this group of artists, originating in three European capitals, Copenhagen, Brussels and Amsterdam, refreshed the Dutch and international art scene and formed one of the most important art movements in the second half of the 20th century.

The CoBrA art group is among those, who paved the way of European modernism and in order to understand the contemporary art world with all its difficulties, it is essential to understand its roots. This project is designed to present the art of CoBrA in the Czech Republic for the very first time. The exhibition will feature approximately 20 oil works by several artists of the CoBrA group such as Appel, Constant, Cornelle, Pedersen, Asger Jorn and Henry Heerup.

The project is established in cooperation with the CoBrA Museum in Amstelveen
